Fred W. Hicks, A. B., M. A., Ph.D.

Some words in dedication: the 1968 Tomokan, in keeping with current journalistic trends, has dispensed with the traditional dedication to the revered trustee, retiring professor, or some altruistic generality. Instead we have chosen to recognize that man who for the past four years has been the most dynamic force on this campus. Fred W. Hicks assumed the office of Dean of Men during the summer of 1964. Since that time the by-word has been reorganize, revamp, and reorient Rollins men and women; to what? Well, that's for you to decide. But one might venture a slight indiscretion—the old Rollins is dead. Whether it be the Interfraternity Council, Lower Court, the new Social Code, the Reorganization, Men Counselors, the Dean's Grant and Aid Fund, off campus housing for men, or the Beanery on Friday night, Dean Hicks influence and leadership have permeated every aspect of the Rollins scene. Time, patience and F. W. Hicks cured us of our worst habits. His courage, foresight, and diplomacy have been of inestimable value. Our thanks and best wishes for the future.

Tomokan 1968 attempts to tell it like it was.
We use pictures and occasionally the chosen word to convey what life at Jolly Rolly means.
This book portrays the year –
then and now.
Bonnie, Clyde, and C. W. Moss;
The Graduate, and 1-A status.
Specifically:
the games we played,
the groves we ripened in,
the grind to which almost all conceded.
Now aren't you excited?
Lie down then.
Where palm and pines hide your girl and you –
This was the year.
A little good, a little bad,
a little different . . .
Yet not too far off from the rest.
People are the variable factor.
And in twenty years with retrospect,
We'll look and feel higher in our embroidered balloons.
After all, life's all in the way you feel, isn't it?

ROLLINS 68

A more subtle Perspective;
Taking off the shades,
A more discerning look into our time.

When Orion guarded the Eastern horizon –

Senior men moved off campus,

Freshmen were deferred;

Women's hours were extended.

While the coots wintered on the lake –

Bush and Enyart were 'Being erected here',

the new curriculum
took shape.

The intensity of a moment —

alone,
or with another;

As participant or spectator
'Now' was the role we played.

Moments

quietly reflected

Moments with the immediacy

of an instant replay

Moments
which will return occasionally
Each time a little more distant when viewed from the day after tomorrow.

SOMEHOW
FOUND OUR "NICHE"

CONFIDENTLY SPEAKING THE LANGUAGE

OF OUR TRIBE –

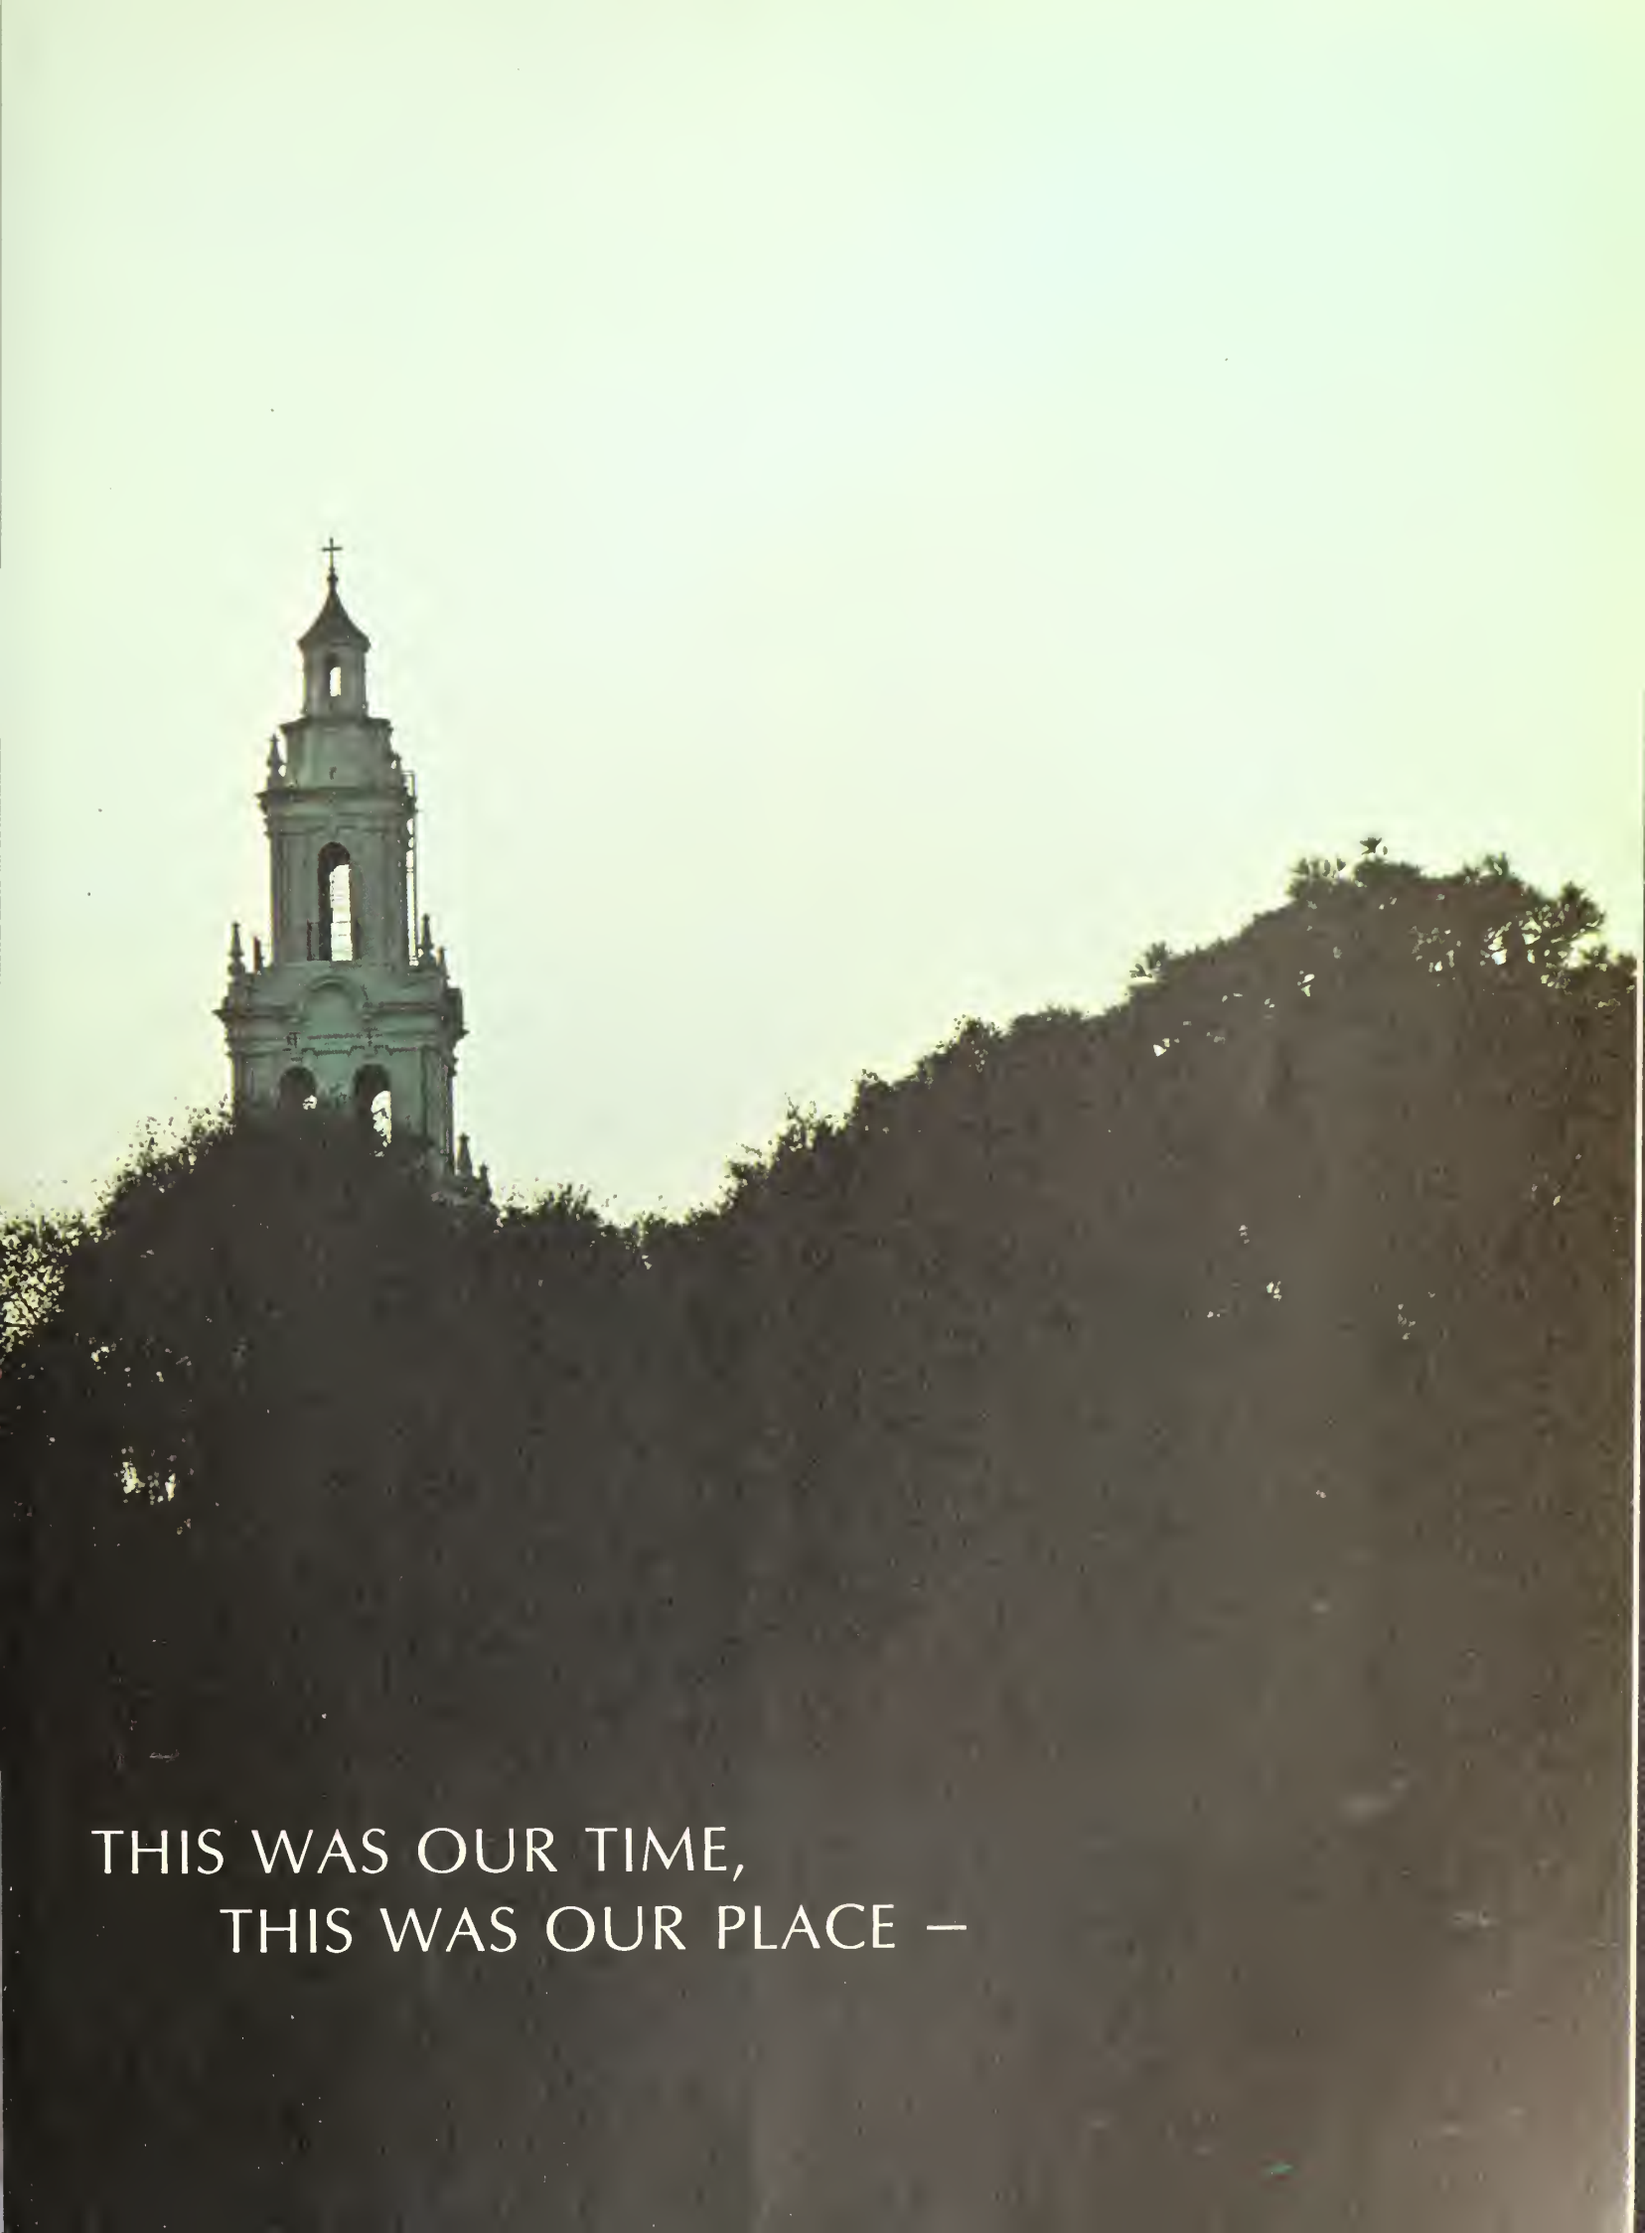
GOOGOOGOOJOOB

Little by little,

We came to Know.

A Good Time
was had by All.

AT LEAST FOR A LITTLE WHILE.



THIS WAS OUR TIME,
THIS WAS OUR PLACE –

the grind to which almost all conceded—

There were few things different about the collective uncertainty known as Orientation week this past year. It began one quiet Sunday in late September when the temperature was about seventy degrees at 8 AM; but despite the heat, the traffic, the frustration of registering, and the confusion of parents, three hundred and forty-eight freshmen and transfer students were admitted Fall Term, 1967. The apparent ease with which this feat was accomplished was deceiving, because many long and exhaustive hours had gone into the planning and execution of this operation. Dr. Fletcher, head of the History and Social Science Department, headed the committee; ably aided by Dan Pincetich and Susie Thompson. Most of the time life was nothing but a maze of blanks to be filled in; swimming tests to be taken; Tomokan pictures made; summer reading assignments to review or read for the first time; and last, but not least, meeting your faculty adviser. There were a few brief moments when one might reflect on one's predicament, but not for very long.

BEAUTY

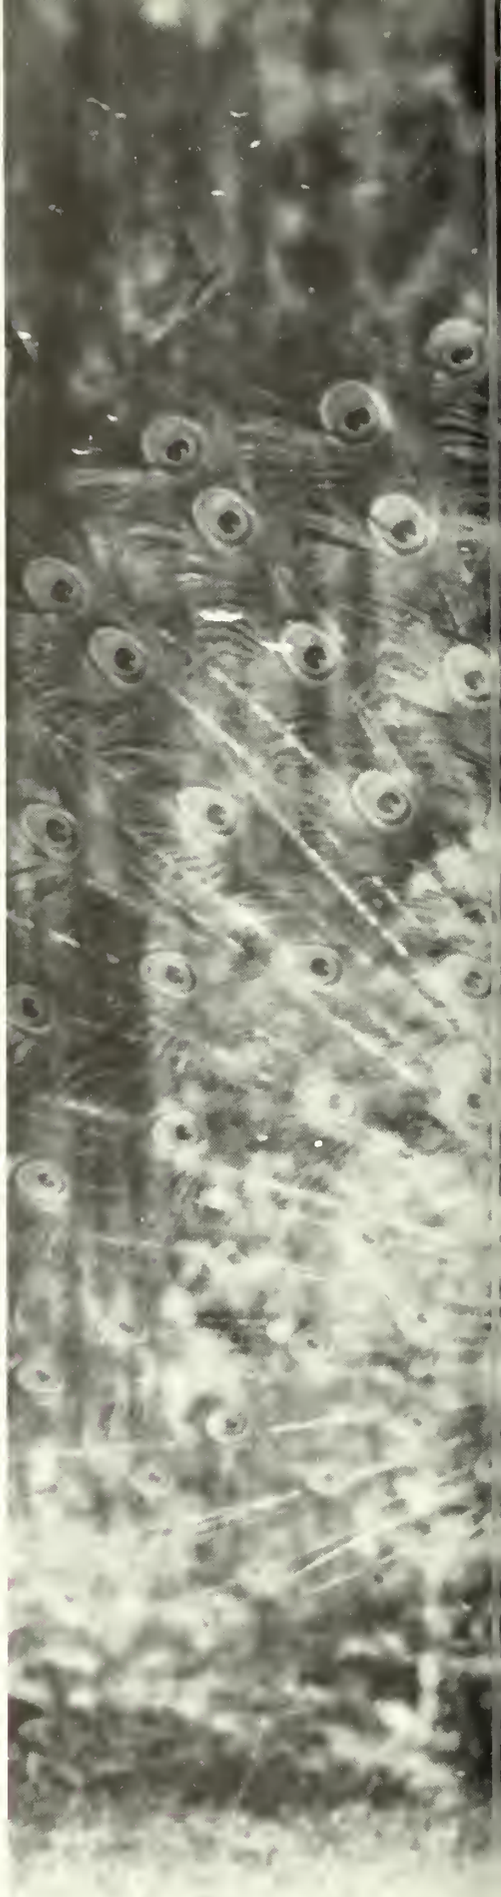
MISS ROLLINS

Julia Frank

In spite of the fact that Fiesta was discontinued last year, the Miss Rollins contest was held in May, with a host of campus "beauty" participating. The various contestants were judged on their poise, beauty, and personality amid the traditional surroundings of the Gamma Phi courtyard. Runners-up were Miss Sheri Housel and Miss Chira Kirkland. Miss Julia Frank was chosen as Miss Rollins for 1967-1968. Julie is a sophomore from Pompano Beach, and her extracurricular activities include water skiing and intramural basketball. She was sponsored by Kappa Kappa Gamma.

MISS TOMOKAN 1968

Carole Conklin



Congratulations to a most outstanding Senior woman, who, in the opinion of the 1968 Tomokan staff, has displayed not only the outward traits of beauty—charm, poise, and graciousnes; but also that indefinable quality which radiates from within, permeating the campus around her.

To acknowledge her services to Rollins: Carole has served for two years as president of her sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma, as well as having maintained an active interest in student affairs, serving as secretary of the Student Association in 1966-67, and as a member of the Student-Administrative Council in 1967-68. As a member of Key Society and secretary of Libra, Carole has displayed an admirable and consistently high academic standard. Carole's home is in Syracuse, New York. She will receive a Bachelor of Arts in history upon graduation in June.

MOVING

THE 1968 DUBIOUS AWARDS

The Tomokan acknowledges those who have worked incessantly behind the scenes to make life at Rollins that rare experience we all know it is.

Fred W. Hicks receives the "Latent Adolescent Award" presented on behalf of the Barbers of America.

President Hugh F. McKean receives a "Profiles in Courage Award" for unwavering defense of the Ten Year Development Plan in the face of massive journalistic criticism.

Rollins Players—Best Acting of the year, from an original source—'Old Man Moon.'

To Bill Blackburn goes the "Johnny come Lately Award" for his devotion to duty on the night of Dec. 17.

Al Hollon—"Best Actor of the Year" for his performance as the most effective speaker in "Council 68—An Expose."

Mark Billson receives "The Clark Kent Memorial Award" for journalism and intestinal Fortitude.

Robert Kirouac, Assistant Dean Men receives the "Benedict Arn Award."

Dr. Hayes, Resident Physician Rollins, we give the "Good T Charley Award" for his relent examinations of women students Nona Gandelman receives a golden gramophone on which to play the Rollins fight song.

Don Robins—Best Supporting Actor of the year for continued cooperation and unassuming manner.

To Fred Gittes "A Democracy in Action Award" presented by the Council with best wishes for the future.

To the Mills Institution we give a B.A. Mammorial for the worst stacked library in America.

To the Student Center we give honorable mention for its rationing of potato chips in the face of the alarming shortage due to the war in Vietnam.

To the New Curriculum and Mrs. Wheeler "The Gross Excess Award".

The Tom Brightman Memorial Award goes to none other than Sid Smidt for his pioneer work as Chairman of the Traffic Committee.

The Interfraternity Council receives honorable mention for its continued effectiveness and pioneer work in human relations.

Pan-Hellenic also warrants honorable mention for its persistence to uphold the precepts of the far-right.

1967 was, for the Alpha Phis, the year of the helmet; each day bringing its own particular trauma, but 1968 ushered in brighter horizons and a fantastic pledge class. An organized branch of the Mafia, the pledges took hints from the Nazi concentration camps for their pranks . . . We hail the return of our prodigal sister P-F after her harrowing escape from Iraq and the Marines. Findelstein and Seal went off in search of rich coffee barons in Bogata, Colombia. Gail Pattison returned to us second semester after a "safari" in the wild country of New Jersey. Nancy Sharpless got the point but naive Nancy Biller had to have it explained to her by a lecherous 4th grader. Donna Brodie is as meek as a mouse. I smell a rat. No, Fy Cook isn't unattached, she's just put together funny . . . a helmet for every occasion—all shapes, sizes and colors to fit any trauma. Miss Felton knows more than she's telling . . . Debby is writing a book titled "101 Ways to get Fished-In", with illustrations by Shelly Crosby. Kathy Kersten has declared Art her major . . . Kathy Weiher thinks that everything is "real george." Maria and Paula got Deathly Sick eating jelly beans and M&M's in Jordan Marsh . . . Joan went through campus mail and came up with the equation, JB the quantity squared but all the US mail yielded was the square and not the quantity. Margie Barry is reviving the old song "Smoke gets in your eyes" and Linda Manieri is adding a couple of verses on how to get it into your nose and mouth and ears . . . but remember, Joanna, there is always a phone in the date room too. The school's SS men had a bit of difficulty keeping up with Pam and Hunter. Gwen got a Sandspur caught in her foot and had to go to the library to get it removed . . . Barbara finally got activated but Merry will be an ex-pledge till she dies, or kills us in the process. "Gink" and Leslie are conducting a psychological research story on "The Frustration of Actives." President Lincoln was shot in the Ford Theater of February 11 while watching a production of "Lady and the Tramp." Bunny and Xandi are the Alpha Phi's answer to the Mormon Tabernacle Choir . . . Terry and Margot, cut the histrionics—did you know that Sharon Veach collects sweatshirts, Maralyn would rather collect the stuffings . . . Roni is transferring to Dartmouth and Linda Lauer won a soccer scholarship to the University of Miami . . . Lynne Benedict advocates that honesty is the best policy approach, and for her it works. Welyne refinishes old helmets, but Sue Deutsch would rather start from scratch and make her own . . . got any more secrets Marne—and now we will be briefed on the "do's" and "don'ts" of dirty rush by Beaver . . . hmmm, yes, it could be arranged . . . Joye was "missed" by the Naval Reserve and the Seminole Plaza. Betty has outside interests, but Cheryl's are more internal. Roberta claims no relation but Pam Spencer is working on forming a few, is it true that blondes have more fun—more fun than what? What makes Tammy run . . . Katy Overstreet is Scene but not Herd . . . by the way Sue, are all your Bills paid up . . . ?

The Chi O house that was, went underground—traditions have been forcefully transferred into camouflaged collages, silent sipping, and parties private. Seniors' freedom reveals these facts: Klamer's French lover . . . Ruth's bar escapades . . . McCall's white hornets at 5 a.m. . . . Bruch's Friends (R. C. flunkies) . . . Betty's deviations—Snakes, "the Fighting Irish" and the U.S.A. . . . Sandy's gourmet delicacy—Stu . . . Sugar and Lana's quickies . . . Marilyn's Spark-ling ring . . . Harriet and Barb, wed-locked! For those remaining, hopefully these incidents stay concealed: Blocker Chuck-ed a Stone . . . Cindy Keil-ed over . . . Patti complained . . . Carol dated . . . no baby, Brad, but why the cigars? . . . Carter decided to go Chi O . . . Helen Peter-ed out . . . Lucy is disguise with a diamond . . . Karen Snaked out of her house . . . and there's Baird—she comes and goes. Can't neglect our terrific twenty!!

Dateline Cross Hall: Flash—Thetas had a banner year—Scudder and Stubbie joined the hallowed ranks of Lambie Pi while Joanie had a Hardee time with the Snakes and Pam raced around Florida but finally won the Indianapolis 500. Julie almost lost her permanent chauffer on the way home from an afternoon party. "The Midnight Ride of Paul Revere" is famous but Niente's ride was more expensive. Jane has been Buttling into a Gust of wind, or was it sun! Shaud as usual had a smile and good word for all. Crabill learned a lot of new things from her first graders—sanitation and all. Sanda's never here, what can we say—ask John. Carol DuBois wasn't sick all year sorry about that, Dad! Connie Griffin, new President and Lambda Chi Cresent Girl, is still wondering about the Pflug House, so is everybody else. Beth christened the staircase at her seranade. Sunny was rushed well—by Freshman boys and Sherry's tears never stopped, unless she was in love, every other week. And Susu, of course, just kept talking! Weezie lost her partner, but Lindy and Nancy won the prize for "inseparability." Cooper and Anderson challenged Nassau and Ft. Lauderdale this year. Buttons ruled Holt, Gale ruled the pledges, and Heather tried to rule them all. Wally and Ruth ran aground trying to get things rolling, while Carter avoided all and stayed with Chris. Jean was Wing-King and Beth used body-paint, her jeans! Ellen could not wash the clay out of her hair and Krieder got the lead in all the musicals. Hopie ran away to Harvard. Is Hackney engaged, or just likes to work hard? And to round it all out, Thetas had the best and prettiest pledges on campus.

1967-1968 will go down in the annals of Phi Mu history as a crazy, mad, cock-eyed, wacky, daffy, loony, fun-filled year. Jane started the ritual of nightly shaving cream battles; Ronny found it in her pillow, Cheryl got it in the mouth. First string softball catcher Andrews showed her enthusiasm on the field and broke her finger. Frog enjoyed Harpers. Too bad Cheri, Ellen, and Sandy never saw the end of the dog races—good try anyway. Nan and Cathy pulled it up but couldn't pull it off, and Bisky wasn't fooled for a minute. And Tricia still doesn't understand. Tied for first place in the Good Housekeeping Contest were Josie and Bebe. Ann got her annual Christmas present, a phonics book, would you believe volume 18? Lorrie was type-cast as Moon Love. Soon Dianne won't need her electric blanket to keep her warm. Kate's theme song, "Carry Me Back to 'Ole Nassau." Lyanne will never look at another piece of pastry again! Suzanna's tying the knot. Jonesy burned the incense while Jean kept the crows out. Millie has a hot set of rollers. Don't worry, Didi, the ouija board doesn't know it all. McFadden was late again. Nancy enrolled in a Driver's Education course. Mimi got caught in a triangle. Debbie, that was quite a crew you entertained. We got Anne Corley to sing bass. Judi and Kathy, how was the outfield? We serenaded Mary and her Danny-boy. Laurie was our best P.R. girl, or at least Jan must have thought so. Don't worry Norman, Jimmy Durante has one too, but we still love you. And here's to Harpers, the haven of the actives.

The Pi Phi's boarded the Arrow Express this year and decided to take a trip . . . Pat, Susan, and Buffy made early reservations . . . Welchy followed us on the exercycle . . . We stopped at Harper's to pick up "Greg" still celebrating her 21st . . . Woodie hopped along to avoid any accidents . . . Hogan drove the train to the church where she departed with Sharon, Fort, Morris and Richeson, as Mrs. Cornelius Bozeman Bohannon III came out . . . Chris was left at Paul's zoo . . . Traylor went by Pony Express . . . Billie the Rich Kid and side-kick Two-Can Carrison held up the train, but Kiersky Holmed the engine and we got away . . . We stopped off at the Enco station to get Brownie, and Brew-er got gassed . . . The Wheels chugged forward as we passed Lester's Bar where "Lou" Rawls and the Holt Harem (Gretchen, Debbie and Jan) were appearing . . . Navigator Hannah wanted to Bare towards New York, but Ruthy wanted to go Westy . . . Kate and Sharon had cold legs the whole trip . . . Thompson set her mark for John, as we left her at Cape Kennedy . . . Conyers and Ann wanted to go home, but Campbell said she'd Lynch the next person who wanted to spend extra money . . . We left Sudie off at the Place where Taulbee bought some T.K. potatoe chips . . . Melinda, now driving, was squinting and almost ran over Bachman . . . Sue and Kay were waiting for us at the Science Building where Guiliana was inside trying to calculate how to play tennis by computer . . . Jenny wanted to go to Brazil, but Sally said the Nashville sound was better . . . Cindy stopped at the store to buy some Logs for the fire that Maggie started in Spain . . . "Butch" wanted to get another hair cut, but Mimi convinced her that crew-cuts were out . . . Finally Linda decided the journey was long enough, so Karen took care of the Bill and Josie bid good-bye, as the train pulled into Pi Phi Heaven . . .

Donavon: The crying cowboy still hasn't gotten his spurs. Chapin: George is losing his hair and Lindley is losing her patience. T.J. Fitzgerald: he got his eye fixed and now his teeth don't work. Babb: well, he fell down the stairs once. Dryden and MaCaully: speech majors. Shylock Gordon: Discovered girls this year, now how do they work? Fock: Second floor's idol? Norman: Eternal triangle—Norman, the car, and Brownie. Dr. Cochran: The Delts finally got a hellava good adviser. Max: How honorable are his intentions? Trey: That's quite a girl. Dennis: Used to be quite a guy. Keith, Al, Pete Gaidis: There is possibility of overpopulation, you know. Kirkerian: Should have been third floor instead of first. Robin: Like Governor Wallace. Mike McBride: Dollar drunk and then he swallows his tongue. Dwight: What a great "big Brother". Bernie: Dancing lessons with plenty of soul. Blasier: Myers and Taylor like him. Cerf: a new pledge sickness? Randy: President of the pledge class? Tom Hubbard: Chuck Gordon's replacement. Pete Bolten: a little draft in the attic. Wally: Trade—two blondes for Betsy Blocker. Dan Leary: Larry Mondelle—Beaver's best friend. Corky: Wise guy. Chris: came back this year a changed man—works hard, President's List, temperance man, Young Republican. Dick: Sydney Sullivan Scholarship, scholarship chairman, President's List, Dean's List. Taylor: Most likely to succeed, Delta Chi of the Year. Myers: Thoughtful, kind individual, good fraternity man, all around gentleman.

As General Lee and I walked down the hall this year, we made the following observations: Everybody is hoping that King will find his Queen. Ewing had an "udderly" catastrophic wreck. Cornish nebished and Breath flew. Somers rose to the occasion and plucked the petals off. Bottomley turned rah rah. Leo ended up singing "Where have all my roommates gone?" Nix cleaned up his act. Ort had to be treated for a toe disease. Cy cooled his motors this year—the boss came back. Warner had a torrid romance with Tilly. DuPont Bucked Pot, but stayed on his monthly trips. Corbett's favorite Candy is Licorice. Otis played in a world of mini skirts and mini brains. All the girls spent the year Bird watching, right Jimmy Ray? Whitlock got up the other day and it looked nice out, so . . . Paley—one of the ten best dressed hippies of the year. Hey Midge, kinky hair and I.D. Bracelets are out this year. All the king's horses and all the king's men finally put Gordon back together again. To Zero Brown goes the AAA safe driver of the year award. For a Baby, Huey isn't a bad chugger. Nathan was the only pledge who knew everything about nothing. On the surface, Gamber is kind of quiet, but he occasionally gets "RAUDY." For an intellectual, Janis is certainly slow. Hey, Breaux, how does it feel to be a twenty-four year old pledge? And for a social member, Clanton certainly is an active KA. Finally the Brooks Brothers Lampshade got a Georgia bulb. And as our two seniors, Slothower and Kibbe, leave with tears in their eyes, they are handed the most congenial host of the year award.

Despite the efforts of the police, this year has been a good year for the Lambdas. For instance, Keil learned to play a Hammond organ ... Friske developed his San Paulo satellite ... Vartanian found a friend for Smirnoff ... Grunow had a pet named Fido ... Butner went German —he drinks out of a Stein or two ... Joel spoke softly but carried a big stick ... Vogel tried to "Be—Good" with Josie, but couldn't swing it ... Billy Joe got lavaliered ... Puma was busier than we thought ... the Cobra struck again ... all that Muff could get was a new car ... to a Log-man it's a Kent ... Lehr made an overnight trip to New Symyrna ... the Guinea was relieved because we took one more ... Fat Gordo kept in shape by running to Harper's, but not for Campbell's soup ... Bill's still undeicded (??) ... Y.A. became a two car family ... Skipper broke away from his caste and campus ... Aw come on Oz, give the traveling Sec. a break ... Rosen's still the best, just ask him ... the "Bod" had two M.G.'s but only one was a car ... Wes got drunk on ginger ale ... Dunc plays at home now ... Fogg remained unbeaten but showed signs of slowing ... Bill B. got a new set of wheels ... Jefe had a "fish-in" while Needles caught some Tunifish in the Grand Kenyon ... Doepke spent a lot of time in the sand brewing ... Wright lives at the Enco station ... Wilson and Bacon lived together ... T.K. gave Susie an invisible pin ... Frankly speaking, Jud doesn't have a chance ... Westgate's gone Junior Playmate ... Tris came to know Connie much beter ... Ross gave up Stu for other meat ... while Birtch contracted the screaming-Mi-Mies ... and how can we ever forget the temple, Dapper, Uncle Pinga's, Old Lambda Land, ODK, the best pledge class on campus, and good ol' Hoggie.

Webster called an end to his eviction parties by bringing in outside help from Chicago. Holbrook became the bicyclists' horror. Woodard and Officer Lang did not exchange Christmas cards this year. Sullivan and the lime returned north to the Toad breeding grounds. Rabbit played with his snakes. Gordon's departure left Alva and Phil with problems. Mary captured the Blissful Savage. Johnson remained the strong silent type. Dad Kest lost another inch of hairline. Short continued to play Steve Canyon. Johnston whistle-stopped by occasionally. Thornborough steps off the Kon-Tiki and picked up his tennis racket where he left it. Brooks became a military attache in France. Snider booked the Staten Island Ferry solid. Page went Christian. The weasel pinned the Chipmunk. Showalter I.M. Force Commander. Davis: I kissed 'er off. Dillon continued to be pushed around. Captain Gee became Lunchpail. Harris denied knowing her. Pound: Crummer's Gigolo.

Tekes found out how a remodeling project could make twice as many men half as comfortable. Miller and Lee learned that housekeeping could be fun, but Cal didn't stay in his room long enough to find out, and Frydenborg picked up stakes. Thompson traded for a better roommate so Jerry took up residence with Ken and Max. Nick and the school marm moved in the attic, and Calamia extended women's hours. Friedland would even be a Catholic for money. Shippen Sealed his fate while Roberts picked up a full-time companion. Gale took a voyage around the Horn. Curtis lowered himself to American citizenship. Franklin severed his ties, but Art took up the slack. Dodge continued to fight wombats, and a sore ankle kept Kramer off the bench. Witzleben tried to study, but the silence was deafening. Robotham finally found a friendly room in the maid's john. Wilder captured a mate, and Albrecht fought forest fires in the hall. Camp went fishing. Chapdelain realed in the "Big A," and Howard took out more line on Ev. The girl back home caught Mohan Horsing around. Fred exchanged his mop for a ledger, and Odessa Pat continued hot on the pipes. Pincetich was elected Sigma Nu man of the year. Weiss traded his 'Lil Monster for real Wyoming snow skis. Lilja and Leporini hung up their oars, and Hengge spent the year losing his suntan. Rich crossed his legs after two painful years. Leedy moved from Milpitas to the TV room. Jarman and Koldhoff dated their way into the tennis team, and Kinne returned after a two-year sabbatical. The Moose learned how to win friends and influence people, and Edwards wove his hair into a door mat. Mrs. Bates claimed the Tekes were changing. Robin dipped into WPHS, Olson became a minute man, and Schwoebel pondered on pedagogy. Finally, after a battle, the right wing crowned a King. We were witnesses.

THE PARTICIPANTS

Jocks at Rollins in 68

Pride in athletic competition, whether intramural or intercollegiate has contributed to the new spirit of Rollins.

SOCCER 1968

The Rollins College Tars finished the soccer season with an enviable 7-4-3 slate. Fine coaching from Ted Staley, Boyd Coffie, and Joe Justice, enabled the Tars to tie for the F.I.C. crown. Individually, leaders of this year's team included returning All-state players; Willie Flohr, set scoring records with 21 goals for the season, and 6 goals in one game. Other individual stand-outs were seniors; Chuck Thomas and Bob Schabbes; sophomores Bill Koch and Paul Wright; and quartet of talented "rookies", Buzz Friend, Lee Hildenbiddle, Dave Heidt, and Nick Secor.

Despite an eight-game losing streak, Coach Coffie's 1967-68 Tar Basketball team managed to finish the season with eleven victories, the greatest number of wins since the 1957-58 season. Key victories included Florida Presbyterian, Tampa, and Stetson. The loss of Sterling Case, most valuable player in the Florida Southern Tournament and most valuable senior with a 20-point scoring average; Rick Loghry, a tough rebounder with a 14-point average; Mark Stewart, an aggressive clutch player; Don Smith, fine rebounder; and Dave Pearlman, a great clutch player, will definitely be felt. But returning in the starting lineup will be Mark Freidinger, Larry Martinez, and others who have that special quality that builds good basketball teams—pride in winning.

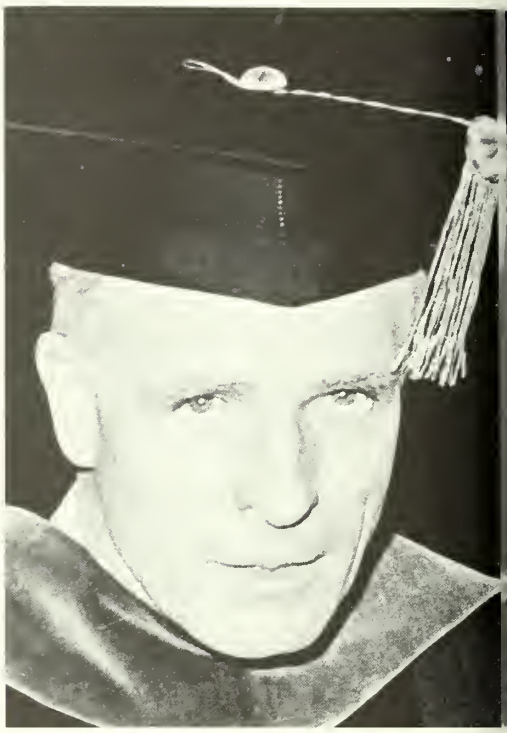
ADMINISTR

PRESIDENT HUGH F. MCKEAN



After 27 years as President of Rollins College, Mr. McKean continues to bring dignity and esteem to his administrative capacities. The strides which Rollins has made in the past four years testify to this as seen in the DuBois Health Center, the Enyhart Memorial Field House, the A. G. Bush Science Center, and the Roy E. Crummer School of Business Administration. Mr. McKean has endeavored to maintain the small liberal arts tradition. In his address to the general college on April 23, 1965, he stressed the intrinsic values of a small college dedicated to the liberal arts tradition. On this campus, education begins with a deep interest in and a respect for the individual. The reason is sound. Those qualities which make each of us unique and therefore ourselves may be our talents. To develop the talents of the student has been the aim of Rollins for 81 years. But talents are wasted if a life is wasted. Rollins stresses the pursuit of sound values as well as the pursuit of knowledge.

SANDSPUR 68

The Sandspur has been a way of life for its editors this year, who emerged on occasion to refresh their memories about sunlight. Buzzing with activity, gossip and hard work, the office was second home to the staff. Hard work made fast friends of the Spur editors; no one will ever forget Mark's daily "Welll, PEOPLE, you WON'T believe WHAT happened!" . . . or Patrick swearing in German, beating on desks and scaring poor Josie to death . . . or Scott who never speaks until he has something to say that makes you laugh for an hour . . . or Susan losing everything important . . . or Lynn, who deserved the World's Waiting Award . . . or Josie who got a little gitte toward the end of the year . . . But most of all, we'll always remember our rare Bird who got his dugs, got fired, but remained Editor-in-Disguise all the time!

From the first issue, the Spur pursued one campaign after the next—hacking hair, changing hours, killing virginity, closing doors, and climaxing in our Library Probe. In spite of the 5 A.M. Friday mornings at the printers, jaunts to London and New York, suffering grades and muckraking, it's been a great year, and a great Sandspur.

THE 1968 TOMOKAN STAFF

TOMOKAN 1968

A multitude of inexperience and professionalism has been synthesised to create this rare experience which we pass on to you as the 1968 Tomokan. Now a word about the staff: each has contributed in terms of himself and for that I am grateful. Their individual journalistic feats are noted on the following page. Not pictured but most deserving of recognition: John Harris, sports; Sally Holder, typing; Susie Traylor, office work; Marion Brewer, page proofs; Mr. Wilbur Dorsett, advisor. Pictured at Top: Ted Flagg, photographer; Tris Colket, Assistant Editor; Robert Farwell, Editor. Right: Jeff Birtch, typing and off-color jokes.

EPILOGUE

Darkly, through tortoise shell shades—

Step up, Step up! Meet your classmates, meet your time, blow your mind (or lunch, depending on your frame of reference.) Life was the Union with strains of your favorite tunes, a 'buzz on' in the groves, a helmet, Harpers, or now, maybe the Round Table. Our time was compressed into hours spent on papers, screams (with 'cool') at a horror show, quiet walks, a few talks, and many, many meaningful statements. Yes 'cool' was our world, Procrastinate—our creed. Live for the now like 'Bonnie and Clyde'—tomorrow was plenty of time. Here's hoping you remember you're real.

After all, Life's all in the way you feel, isn't it?

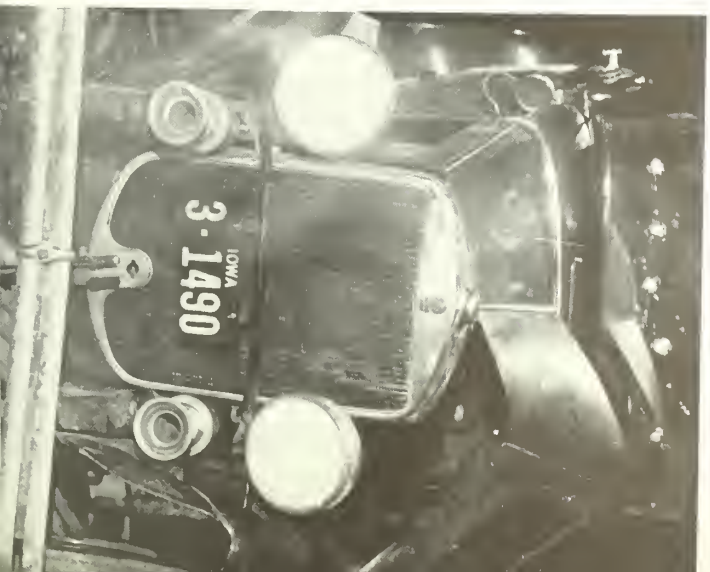
SCARBOROUGH FAIR?



LOVE WAS BLUE THEN,

TIMES WERE GOOD.

AIN'T LIFE GRAND?

First I must explain that the 1968 Tomokan was completed on March 1. No copy, pictures, or pages were sent after that date, consequently Spring Term has been omitted. My apologies to those sports, activities, and college functions which are either absent or lacking proper representation.

We endeavored to produce a publication which would be representative of the student and his environment.

In a final analysis, whether or not our effort has been justified, only you can decide. A yearbook exists fundamentally for remembrance sake. Let me know what you think about 2001.

My personal thanks and appreciation to Ted Flagg, who worked so diligently to maintain the highest possible standard in our photography this year; and to Tris Colket, who as my associate editor, contributed significantly to the success of the final product.

Remember, Heaven hold a place for those who pray,
the ever-watchful and stealthful,

Puma
